

Believe In Tomorrow
Children's Foundation

Fast Facts

The Believe In Tomorrow House at Pinnacle Falls

- Spring 2007 Groundbreaking at the House at Pinnacle Falls.
- Fall 2008 construction slowed because of the economic crisis.
- Spring 2009 South Carolinian and Believe In Tomorrow supporter, Bill Amick & family step forward to provide funding to continue construction on Believe In Tomorrow's second respite home dedicated to serving military families with critically ill children.
- Artisan and craftsman Carl Dakes, owner of the Dakes Company provides all of the materials, management and labor to prime and paint the interior of the home.
- Jason Buechel of Natural Stone Veneers Intl., Inc., travels almost 1,000 miles to oversee the placement of natural stone material to complete the interior of a wall in the Great Room and interior and exterior of the chimney.
- Number of local volunteers participating in the project – 120.
- Estimated number of families who will enjoy the Believe In Tomorrow House at Pinnacle Falls over the next decade – more than 500.
- Square footage of the House at Pinnacle Falls – 3,300.
- Number of bedrooms in the House at Pinnacle Falls – 3.
- Number of bedrooms in the Biltmore – 34.
- Number of bathrooms in the House at Pinnacle Falls – 3.
- Number of bathrooms in the Biltmore – 43.
- Large fully equipped modern kitchen.
- Family room with pool table and flat screen TV.
- Numerous outdoor decks: Front Deck, Sun Deck and View Deck.
- Items needed to complete the house include hardwood flooring, cedar siding, porch railing, interior solid wood doors, granite counter tops, new kitchen appliances, bathroom fixtures and interior furnishings.
- Five miles of hiking trails.
- Ten miles from downtown Hendersonville.
- 35 miles to Asheville, NC.
- Number of feet to closest swimming pool – 1,000 feet.
- Number of feet to closest waterfall – 1,400 feet.
- Number of fish in area lakes, streams and waterways – too many to count!
- Number of memories a family can make at the Believe In Tomorrow House at Pinnacle Falls – is up to YOU!

