

Unsung Hero Award – 2005

Patrick “Scunny” McCusker

Believe In Tomorrow’s first recipient of the Believe In Tomorrow Unsung Hero Award is Patrick “Scunny” McCusker. Since 1999, Scunny’s contributions to Believe In Tomorrow families have been extraordinary. Scunny has provided over 7,200 meals to Children’s House families through his restaurants, Nacho Mammams and Mamma’s On the Half Shell. And that is just the beginning of Scunny’s involvement. From initiating the development of the Children’s House at St. Casimir, to serving meals, to kayaking hundreds of miles to raise money, Scunny is a “one of a kind” hero.
